SENTENCE 4 FOR ACTS INJURIOUS TO PEOPLE -- Sarajevo, Oslobodjenje, 15 Jul 51

On 14 July, the Circuit Court in Sarajevo resented four members of the "Jahorina" Enterprise for acts against the people's property.

Ivan Nasic, president of the supply commission of the local union, was sentenced to 4 years and 6 months loss of freedom for malfeasance and embezzlement. He also distributed bundles of wood and lumber to friends who were not members of the union, thus depriving members of wood and lumber.

Ilija Gude, a driver for the enterprise, was sentenced to 7 years and 6 months. Two others received lesser sentences, and three were acquitted.

The Circuit Court had previously passed sentence on a large group, including the seven above, for acts injurious to the enterprise. However, the Supreme Court of Bosnia-Herzegovina had reversed the judgment of the lower court and remanded the case for a new trial.
